

Highlights

Weekly Highlights

Capacity building corporation

Mpfareleni, Elliottah and Tsamme capacitated three CBOs, together with various stakeholders from SAPS, the Department of Social Development, the Department of Health, the Department of Education, CPFs and other frontline workers. The workshop took place in Mankweng, Seshego and Thohoyandou in Limpopo. The workshop aimed to provide a psychologically safe space for participants to reflect on their work and how it impacts them and be able to identify the challenges, successes, concerns and identify support needs as stakeholders. The programme also sought to provide psychoeducation about trauma awareness, including vicarious Trauma, SGBV Amendment Bills and Psychological First Aid (PFA).

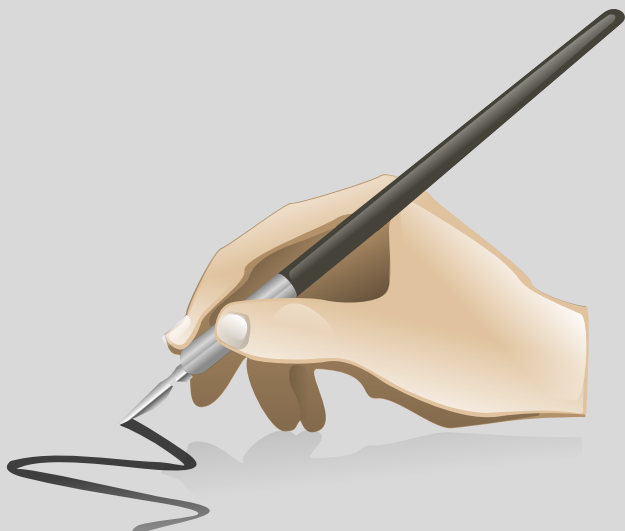

GBVF Seminar

Noma and Boikanyo along with Tsamme's support at hosted a two-day seminar on GBVF in collaboration with POWA at the Freedom Park Heritage Site in Pretoria, hosting industry experts, service providers as well as intergenerational community members from various communities including Temba, Honeydew, Diepsloot.

Writing retreat

The Research Team hosted a writing retreat based on the NSP GBV Scorecard data collected in the past year. This was a four-day workshop exploring ways in which the data can be best utilised by CSVR while also meeting the donor's expectations and deliverables. Further to this, the workshop included sessions to improve critical thought and writing abilities. The attendees included Gugu R, Noma, Nonsi, Gugu S, Percy, Boikanyo and Naledi.

Femicide Study Introductory dialogues

Noma and Boikanyo embarked on the KZN leg of the femicide study introductory dialogues, visiting CBOs and service providers in areas such as Inanda, Ntuzuma, Kwa Mashu (INK) as well as Umlazi.

